ANSWERED ON:05.08.2005
COMPLETION OF POWER PROJECTS
Nikhil Kumar Shri

Will the Minister of POWER be pleased to state:

(a) whether some of the State Governments are not getting their due share of power allocated from the Central power distribution agencies;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether the Union Government has worked out any plan for the completion of some of the Central power projects in States; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF POWER (SHRI P.M. SAYEED)

(a) & (b) : No, Sir. The States are getting their due share of power from central generating stations as per their allocation.

(c) & (d) : At present, projects totalling about 21,000 MW capacity are under execution in the Central Sector for the benefits during 10th and 11th Plan. For timely completion of the projects under construction, the monitoring mechanism has been strengthened. The Central Electricity Authority has a nodal officer for each project, both at the conception stage as well as during execution.
